次の Cat (猫) についての英文を読んで、あとの問いに答えてください。

Physical characteristics

-Body type for hunting purposes

Cats are smaller than other members of the cat family. They are very soft and have sharp claws, teeth and explosive power. They may scratch or bite people they don't like without holding back.

They have very soft footsteps and little body smell. So, even if a cat sneaks into a house without permission, humans often do not notice it.

Because of that, cats often attack humans while they sleep at night, and kill them by cutting their throats. (い)

-Ears

Nekomimi-girls, who in anime and manga wear cat ears on their heads, are (1).

They are small and cute, and they act together with other characters. They don't seem to attack other people at all. (2) it's not the truth. The truth is, they act very cute in front of everyone, but secretly they like to sleep with men. (ろ)

However, as you can see from a cat robot, cat ears are only decorations and even if they come off, it won't cause any inconvenience in life. They can become cuter by putting on ears and they can understand other people's feelings and stay with them.

Making cat ears seem cute may be needed to use humans to have a lot of children. (3)

-Cat punch

Cat punch is when a cat uses its paws to hit something. The paws are soft and fluffy, so they won't hurt anyone. (4) This is a great technique because it does good and may deceive the other person.

Cat Punch is sometimes used to push the reset button to stop the game from playing.

At that time, the gamer may sometimes despair. (は)

This technique is not just for cats, but with the practice of other animals and humans can do it as well. Talking about famous people, Mickey Rourke, a martial artist, can do ⁽⁵⁾it.

If you fall for a one-click scam because of a cat punch, the owner will be held to account under Article32 of the Cat Law. (に)
